A NEW IDENTITY

What a person does time after time becomes a habit, and habits form a person's character. A lot of people have the desire to turn their lives around. They no longer wish to be associated with the ugly things they were known for over a long period of time. For example, a person may not want to continue living life as an alcoholic, a drug addict, a habitual liar, a thief, a sorcerer, a murderer, or an adulterer. You may be this person. Having deep regrets about a bad choice you made is very good, but the chances that you will make that choice again are high, because your old nature still exists. The old nature will hang around until your sins have been washed away, and you have a God-given identity. The Bible tells us about the man, Jacob, who started life as a thief and a liar. He lived as a deceitful schemer to get what he wanted, and had no peace until God gave Him a new identity (Genesis 32:27-30). With the new identity, came abundant blessings that were rightfully his.

God wants you to have a sound and a disciplined mind, because He created you in His own image. He will give you a new identity in spite of your past. However, you must repent of your sins and seek a relationship with His Son, Jesus Christ, before that can take place. Christ died on the Cross of Calvary to pay for the sins of mankind. The Blood that He shed on the Cross cleanses all manner of sin, in that your sins are completely forgiven once you receive Him as your Lord and Savior. Once you enter into a relationship with Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit comes to dwell in you (Ephesians 1:13-14). You will then have a God-given identity. Anyone who receives Christ becomes a new person. The old life they had ceases to exist, and a new one begins (2 Corinthians 5:17). Moral excellence is not attained by human strength. It is built in the life of a person by the Holy Spirit. You do not have the power to resist sin without the Holy Spirit.

You are not on earth by chance. God created you wonderfully for a specific purpose to fulfill (Genesis 1:27-28, Ephesians 2:10). Arise and Shine! Receive Christ now to begin to fulfill the purpose for which you were created. Don't wait a minute!

HOW TO RECEIVE JESUS

CHRIST TODAY

The Bible says that if you confess with your mouth that Jesus Christ is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved (Romans 10:9).

1. Admit that you are a sinner.

2. Be willing to turn away from your sins.

3. Believe in your heart that Jesus Christ died for your sins on the Cross, and rose from the dead.

4. Then bow your head and say the prayer below:

Dear God, I confess that I am a sinner. Please forgive my sins. I am truly sorry and want to forsake my sinful lifestyle. I believe that

Your Son, Jesus died for my sins, and is alive. I confess Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior and invite Him to reign in my heart from this day forward. Thank You, Jesus for dying for my sins so that I can be forgiven and have Eternal Life.

Amen.
