One Minute After

Everyone wishes to live a good long life, but it is an undisputed fact that death can visit the young, the old, the rich, the poor, a saint, or a sinner anytime, and anywhere. Physical death is the curse that fell not only upon Adam and Eve, but the whole of humanity (Romans 5:12).

After death, comes judgment (Hebrews 9:27). When a person dies, loved ones begin to plan for his funeral. They make arrangements, and prepare to read his will. After death, comes judgment (Hebrews 9:27). When a person dies, loved ones begin to plan for his funeral. They make arrangements, and prepare to read his will. While the dead is being mourned, his soul is already in one of these two places: Paradise (the resting place for the righteous, before resurrection to eternal life – see Luke 23:42-43), or Hades (the place of torment, where sinners are kept before they are cast into the lake of fire on the Day of Judgment – see Luke 16:23-28).

The dead in Hades is being tormented and possibly filled with rage as he remembers those who knew what he could have done to escape being there but failed to tell him. He may very well be full of regrets, if he was indeed told but chose to ignore the numerous pleas for him to repent of his sinful ways and turn his life over to Jesus Christ. Sadly, there are no more pleas or chances to seek Christ once a person dies.

The dead in Paradise, on the other hand, is resting in a place of loveliness and great delight; a place of contentment that is free of pain and misery, where he joyfully awaits his priceless reward on the Day of Judgment.

How about you? Do you know what awaits you when you die? Do those you associate with talk to you about the importance of salvation? Have they told you about the falsehood of reincarnation? Do they let you know that no one can be saved by their good deeds, but the Blood of Jesus Christ? Christ said, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6). Salvation is found in no one, but Him (Acts 4:12). This simply means that those who keep rejecting Him and die in that state, are doomed to be finally cast into the lake of fire (Revelation 20:15).

Yesterday is gone. You only have today, for tomorrow is not promised. Repent of your sins now and receive Jesus Christ, to be forgiven and to receive the promise of eternal life. Tomorrow might just be too late!
