

that you humbly confess your sins. Be genuine and specific about the sin(s) you committed. Mention each one as you pray – God sees and knows all things (Hebrews 4:13).

Dear Father God: I confess that I strayed from You and went back to my old way of life. Please forgive me for my sins (Mention the sins to acknowledge them). I want to come back to You. I rededicate my life to You and promise to stay true. Thank You, Father for Your mercy and lovingkindness; and for sending Jesus Christ to die for my sins. This I pray in the Mighty Name of Jesus. Amen.

WHAT NEXT?

Start attending church or a place of fellowship again, and plan to attend regularly. It will be helpful to join a prayer group. Remember to read your Bible daily. Strive to continue to live a life of holiness, at all costs. Avoid people, places, and things that can easily lure you back to sin. It will be a very good idea to seek out, and associate with other committed believers, who will guide and support you on your Christian journey. Feel free to visit our websites (Divine Literature International and Dove Letter Zone) for resources that may be of help to you. Welcome Back to God's Family, Beloved!

If this tract has blessed you, please share it with someone else.

DIVINE LITERATURE INTERNATIONAL

-Spreading the Good News Around the World

www.divineliterature.org

www.doveletters.org

All tracts are written by Divine Literature International and made available for free distribution as the Lord provides. This tract is not for sale - do not purchase! Please contact us immediately through our websites if someone attempts to sell it to you.

©Divine Literature International 2023

that you humbly confess your sins. Be genuine and specific about the sin(s) you committed. Mention each one as you pray – God sees and knows all things (Hebrews 4:13).

Dear Father God: I confess that I strayed from You and went back to my old way of life. Please forgive me for my sins (Mention the sins to acknowledge them). I want to come back to You. I rededicate my life to You and promise to stay true. Thank You, Father for Your mercy and lovingkindness; and for sending Jesus Christ to die for my sins. This I pray in the Mighty Name of Jesus. Amen.

WHAT NEXT?

Start attending church or a place of fellowship again, and plan to attend regularly. It will be helpful to join a prayer group. Remember to read your Bible daily. Strive to continue to live a life of holiness, at all costs. Avoid people, places, and things that can easily lure you back to sin. It will be a very good idea to seek out, and associate with other committed believers, who will guide and support you on your Christian journey. Feel free to visit our websites (Divine Literature International and Dove Letter Zone) for resources that may be of help to you. Welcome Back to God's Family, Beloved!

If this tract has blessed you, please share it with someone else.

DIVINE LITERATURE INTERNATIONAL

-Spreading the Good News Around the World

www.divineliterature.org

www.doveletters.org

All tracts are written by Divine Literature International and made available for free distribution as the Lord provides. This tract is not for sale - do not purchase! Please contact us immediately through our websites if someone attempts to sell it to you.

©Divine Literature International 2023

Have you been deserted by other believers because you backslid? Are you constantly judged by people for misdeeds that you now regret? Have you been labelled a "Sinner" in your community? Are you still living with shame after turning from your sins? Do you often feel that you are no longer worthy of having the relationship you once had with God?

Don't be downcast, beloved! Satan will have you feeling unworthy of God's love and forgive-ness. He would love to see you give up on yourself and believe that God is unhappy with you, even when you are truly sorry. Don't fall for his lies! God knows you feel bad about what you have done. However, He is waiting on you to do the needful, just as the Bible says in John 1:9, for Him to welcome you back into His loving arms. He is delighted to forgive us when

Have you been deserted by other believers because you backslid? Are you constantly judged by people for misdeeds that you now regret? Have you been labelled a "Sinner" in your community? Are you still living with shame after turning from your sins? Do you often feel that you are no longer worthy of having the relationship you once had with God?

Don't be downcast, beloved! Satan will have you feeling unworthy of God's love and forgive-ness. He would love to see you give up on yourself and believe that God is unhappy with you, even when you are truly sorry. Don't fall for his lies! God knows you feel bad about what you have done. However, He is waiting on you to do the needful, just as the Bible says in John 1:9, for Him to welcome you back into His loving arms. He is delighted to forgive us when

We choose to go our own way, but turn back to Him. No one who loves God will be separated from Him except by choice (John 10:27-30). The parable of the prodigal son in Luke 15:11-32 portrays His love for us, and His willingness to forgive and restore those who wander away but make their way back. He will welcome you back as if you never left Him, no matter how far you strayed. His desire is to have you with Him for eternity, not wishing that you perish (2 Peter 3:9). When Jesus paid for our sins on the Cross of Calvary, He paid for them all. Not only did He pay for our sins; He also sympathizes with our weaknesses (Hebrews 4:14-16). However, it is required of us all to acknowledge our sins and repent. God will not shut out any child of His who desires to continue to have a relationship with Him. The danger is refusing to admit that

We choose to go our own way, but turn back to Him. No one who loves God will be separated from Him except by choice (John 10:27-30). The parable of the prodigal son in Luke 15:11-32 portrays His love for us, and His willingness to forgive and restore those who wander away but make their way back. He will welcome you back as if you never left Him, no matter how far you strayed. His desire is to have you with Him for eternity, not wishing that you perish (2 Peter 3:9). When Jesus paid for our sins on the Cross of Calvary, He paid for them all. Not only did He pay for our sins; He also sympathizes with our weaknesses (Hebrews 4:14-16). However, it is required of us all to acknowledge our sins and repent. God will not shut out any child of His who desires to continue to have a relationship with Him. The danger is refusing to admit that

We have sinned, and then failing to do what is required to reconcile with Him. It is the Lord God who justifies those who are in Christ, not humans (Romans 8:33). Approach His throne of grace now to receive His mercy, and start living life again!

HOW TO RECONCILE WITH GOD NOW

The Bible says that if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9).

1. Admit that you have sinned.
2. Acknowledge each of the sins committed and be willing to turn from them all.
3. Then say the prayer on the next page.

*You can pray in your own words; but ensure

We have sinned, and then failing to do what is required to reconcile with Him. It is the Lord God who justifies those who are in Christ, not humans (Romans 8:33). Approach His throne of grace now to receive His mercy, and start living life again!

HOW TO RECONCILE WITH GOD NOW

The Bible says that if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9).

1. Admit that you have sinned.
2. Acknowledge each of the sins committed and be willing to turn from them all.
3. Then say the prayer on the next page.

*You can pray in your own words; but ensure