What do you trust in to get you to Heaven?

The greatest mistake you can make in life is to deny yourself God's free Gift of Salvation to mankind through Jesus Christ, and opt for good deeds to be accepted by Him. It is impossible to do anything that pleases God and make it to Heaven if you have not received Jesus Christ into your life. Going to church, giving to the poor, supporting charitable organisations, and showing kindness to our fellow human beings are morally good; but these alone do not make

What do you trust in to get you to Heaven?

The greatest mistake you can make in life is to deny yourself God's free Gift of Salvation to mankind through Jesus Christ, and opt for good deeds to be accepted by Him. It is impossible to do anything that pleases God and make it to Heaven if you have not received Jesus Christ into your life. Going to church, giving to the poor, supporting charitable organisations, and showing kindness to our fellow human beings are morally good; but these alone do not make us righteous in the eyes of God. We are made righteous through His only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ. A relationship with Him is the only way to make it to Heaven (John 14:6).

The Bible says that Adam's spiritual death was passed down to all of humanity (Romans 5:12). It means that all human beings are born spiritually dead. We are all born with a natural tendency to sin. Only those who have pursued righteousness are good in the eyes of God. They sought forgiveness for their sins by receiving Christ as their Lord and Saviour, and committed their lives to holy living.

Jesus Christ paid the price for the sins of mankind when He died on the Cross of Calvary; thus, all the sins you committed are forgiven when you receive Him as your Lord and Saviour. You are Heaven-bound, as long as you live doing the will of God the Father (Matthew 7:21).

If you have not surrendered your life to Christ and continue to render good deeds, you are still considered unrighteous for the reason that you rejected Him, and by that, refused to be cleansed of your sins. You will then be liable to judgment for those sins. Rejecting the Gift of Salvation offered to you through Jesus Christ is wilful disobedience to God, and a sin by itself (John 3:36). However, there is good news! God does not want anyone to face His judgment for sins and perish in the lake of fire (John 3:16, 2 Peter 3:9). He is waiting on you to accept His Gift. He also wants to bless you abundantly, so that you can fulfil the purpose for which He created you. Shift your focus from everything else you are doing in the hope of pleasing God and making it to Heaven; and seek a relationship with Jesus Christ first. Receive Him now, dear one. Tomorrow might just be too late!
