Did you know? Each day we live draws us closer to the end of our time here on earth. God can choose to call back the good, the wicked, the rich, the poor, the young, and the old at any time. No one will be staying here forever, and we each have a destination when we depart. Years ago, a brother in Christ told us how his wife shared the Gospel with a friend on the phone and passed on to glory in her sleep that same day. There have been people who woke up in the morning to go about their usual business, but did not make it back home. Surely, they had wished for a good long life, but the truth is that they are

There have been people who woke up in the morning to go about their usual business, but did not make it back home. Surely, they had wished for a good long life, but the truth is that they are no longer with us. How, why, and when they departed are not as important as where they are now. While some of them lived each of their days like it was their last, others were unprepared. How about you? How prepared are you? Do you have a relationship with Jesus Christ? Where do you want to spend eternity? Where do you truly think your final destination will be?

No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6). This means that a person is separated from God and doomed to be cast into that lake of fire if they do not have a relationship with Christ and die in that state (Revelation 20:15). To die without Christ would be the worst thing you could ever do to yourself. It is not as complicated as you may think to receive Him. Make the decision to receive Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, and then commit to living a life of holiness. Do not keep putting off your Day of Salvation, dear one. Yesterday is gone, you have today, but tomorrow might just be too late!
