

Dear God,
I confess that I am a sinner and separated from You because of my sins. I am truly sorry, and now want to forsake my sinful lifestyle. I believe that Your Son, Jesus died for my sins, was resurrected from the dead, and is alive. I confess Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior and invite Him to reign in my heart from this day forward. Thank You, Jesus for dying for my sins so that I can be forgiven and have Eternal Life. Amen.

If you said this prayer from the bottom of your heart, we rejoice with you because you are now a child of God (John 1:12-13).

WHAT NEXT?

It is important that you commit to a life of holiness after you get saved. Get a Bible and read it daily. Everything you should know about God, His plans for you, and how to live a life that is pleasing to Him are in it. Find a Bible-Believing Church or Place of Fellowship, where you can be fed with sound doctrine. Start attending the place right away, and plan to attend regularly. Write to us about your new life in Christ, through our websites (Divine Literature International or Dove Letter Zone), and feel free to check resources there that may be of help to you. Welcome to God's family, beloved!

If this Tract has blessed you, please share it with someone else.

Are you being abused, oppressed, or treated with contempt? Have you been rejected, betrayed, or deserted? Perhaps you have been disappointed by a loved one, or deeply hurt. You are lonely, terrified, and have no one in the world you can trust to be there for you. Don't be downcast! Christ can relate with whatever you are going through. He understands your pain. Christ experienced the full range of human suffering while He was here on earth. Not only was Jesus Christ lonely; He was also utterly despised, betrayed, ridiculed, slandered, and severely tortured (Isaiah 53:3, 5, 7, 8).

Earthly friends are good to have, but they may not always be there for you. It is not uncommon for fellow human beings to fail us when we need them most. While some are selfish, others have good intentions and yet disappoint us. Some may also have a lot to offer in friendship; but what they offer may eventually cause us misery.

Jesus Christ is the only Friend that you can totally depend on. His friendship offers endless joy, peace, and abundant blessings. He is that Loving Friend, who sticks closer to His friends than anyone (Proverbs 18:24).

Christ calls all those who have a relationship with Him, "Friends" (John 15:13-15). His affection for them is deep and unconditional. He showers His love on them, and stays close through thick and thin. When they wander away, He is concerned; He misses them (Matthew 18:11-13). He also pleads to God the Father on their behalf (1 John 2:1). This means that you can share your pain or weakness with Him and find comfort that no earthly friend can offer you. What a Wonderful Friend He is!

Christ promised to give all those who are troubled rest, if only they would come to Him (Matthew 11:28-30). He desires to be your friend, but you must seek to have a relationship with Him first. It is not complicated as you may think to be a friend of Jesus Christ. You will begin to enjoy the benefits of His friendship once you receive Him as your Lord and Savior, and commit to living a life of holiness (John 15:14). You have that opportunity now. Just make a choice to allow Him into your life today!

HOW TO RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST NOW

The Bible says that if you confess with your mouth that Jesus Christ is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved (Romans 10:9).

1. Admit that you are a sinner.
2. Be willing to turn away from your sins.
3. Believe in your heart that Jesus Christ died for your sins on the Cross, and rose from the dead.
4. Then bow your head and say the following prayer.
